Harriet accepts briefs in all areas of law, but her practice focuses principally on large scale infrastructure disputes and international arbitration. She is also experienced in contractual claims, class actions, competition claims, misfeasance claims, shareholder disputes, corporations law, and misleading and deceptive conduct claims. She has appeared led and unled in courts throughout NSW, Australia, and in arbitrations seated domestically and overseas.

Prior to coming to the Bar, Harriet was a Senior Associate at Ashurst, where she instructed in international arbitrations and Australian court proceedings large, high value claims concerning contract and joint venture disputes, significant infrastructure projects, and cross border disputes.
