Naomi has a broad commercial practice.

She appears unled in contested final hearings and motions, and is also briefed regularly as junior counsel in larger matters.

Before being called to the Bar, Naomi completed the BCL (the equivalent of a law masters) at Oxford University and was awarded the Vinerian Scholarship for top of her year.

She has been the Associate to the Hon Justice Kiefel AC at the High Court of Australia, and a solicitor at King & Wood Mallesons. She also holds a BA (Hons) and LLB (Hons) from the University of Sydney.
