Maria practises broadly and accepts briefs in most areas of law. At the Bar, Maria has worked on a range of matters involving insolvency, equity, employment, property, competition, administrative and constitutional law. She accepts led and unled briefs to advise and appear in courts and tribunals throughout Australia.

Prior to coming to the Bar in 2023, Maria was an Associate at Allens Linklaters Sydney office, working in litigation and restructuring and insolvency. While at Allens Maria undertook an Associateship at the NSW Court of Appeal with the Hon. Justice Leeming. Maria also maintains an academic interest in the law as a Lecturer and Tutor in equity and trusts at the University of NSW.
