

KELLIE DYON

Barrister

+61 2 8239 0230

kellie.dyon@banco.net.au

EXPERIENCE

- Since 2022 Barrister, Banco Chambers, Sydney
- 2021 Legal Consultant, Sydney
- 2012 - 2020 Senior Associate, Dispute Resolution, Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer, London
- 2008 - 2012 Associate, Dispute Resolution, Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer, London
- 2007 Associate, Mallesons Stephen Jaques, Melbourne

QUALIFICATIONS & ADMISSIONS

- 2012 Higher Rights of Audience, Courts of England and Wales
- 2011 Solicitor, England and Wales (2011)
- 2007 Australian Lawyer, Supreme Court of Victoria; High Court of Australia
- 2005 Bachelor of Arts (Mandarin Chinese major); Bachelor of Laws (Hons), University of Melbourne
Prize for first ranked student in Copyright, Patent and Allied Rights
Dean's Award for Academic Achievement in Arts

SELECTED MATTERS

Acting for BCC Trade Credit Pty Ltd in Federal Court litigation involving multiple proceedings related to the Greensill collapse. Led by Peter Braham SC, Justin Williams SC and others, instructed by Kennedys.

Advising CITIC in relation to WA Supreme Court litigation with Clive Palmer in connection with the Western Australian Sino Iron Project. Led by Noel Hutley SC and Dr Sebastian Hartford-Davis, instructed by Allens Linklaters and Herbert Smith Freehills.

Acting for Hakea Holdings Pty Ltd in an appeal in the Full Federal Court in connection with an insurance dispute arising from director misconduct (Hakea Holdings Pty Ltd v Neon Underwriting Limited for and on behalf of the Underwriting Members of Lloyds Syndicate 2468 [2023] FCAFC 34). Led by Chris Withers SC and Dr Sebastian Hartford-Davis, instructed by Holding Redlich.

Acting for Attvest Finance and related entities in relation to a post management-buyout shareholder dispute in two proceedings in the Federal Court (European Brickworks Pty Ltd & Ors v Johan Steyn & Anor (NSD 1170 of 2021); Mecmoh Pty Ltd v Steyn & Ors (WAD 151 of 2022)). Led by James Hutton SC, instructed by Arnold Bloch Leibler.

Acting for an individual in the NSW Supreme Court in a partnership dispute involving proprietary estoppel claims (Pirrottina v Pirrottina (2022/00358515)). Led by Mark Ashurst SC, instructed by Cara Marasco & Company.

Acting for an individual in the NSW Supreme Court in relation to the removal of a caveat (Tingting Wang v Chun Kai Yang [2022] NSWSC 1757). Unled, instructed by Katsikaris Family Lawyers.

SELECTED MATTERS AS A SOLICITOR

Advising on a major consumer class action against Toyota Australia in relation to defective vehicles (Williams v Toyota Motor Corporation Limited [2002] FCA 344).

Acting for a French listed company and certain individual directors defending English High Court litigation seeking to recover USD800m of dividends allegedly paid unlawfully and in breach of duty.

Representing the majority Taiwanese shareholders of a very substantial Cayman Islands company in a long-running shareholder dispute involving allegations of minority oppression and complex contract and company law issues. The case involved litigation in the Grand Court of the Cayman Islands and in the British Virgin Islands.

Acting for a German multinational investment bank in significant English High Court litigation against a Norwegian company, including successfully defending an USD8bn counterclaim and ultimately seeking enforcement of a USD320m judgment debt.

Advising a British multinational on matters related to the announcement of an accounting scandal in its Italian business, following which £8bn was wiped off the company's share price. The case involved US "stock drop" litigation and criminal proceedings in Italy.

Advised on significant English High Court tax litigation for a multinational pharmaceutical company in a transfer pricing dispute with HM Revenue & Customs (UK).

Advising a leading professional services firm on a high profile breach of warranty IT outsourcing dispute in the English High Court.

Acting pro bono on an IT outsourcing dispute in relation to the defective performance of a database services contract for a major UK charity's educational project in Egypt.